

First Reading

Isaiah 50:4-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

I did not cover my face against insult and I know I will not be ashamed.

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue.

So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech.

Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple.

The Lord has opened my ear.

For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away.

I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle.

The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults.

So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.Responsorial Psalm

Ps 21:8-9, 17-20, 23-24

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

All who see me deride me.

They curl their lips, they toss their heads.

'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him;

let him release him if this is his friend.' R.

Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me.

They tear holes in my hands and my feet.

I can count every one of my bones. R.

They divide my clothing among them.

They cast lots for my robe.

O Lord, do not leave me alone,

my strength, make haste to help me! R.

I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled.

'You who fear the Lord give him praise;

all sons of Jacob, give him glory.

Revere him, Israel's sons.' R.*Second Reading

Philippians 2:6-11 (JB)

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

He humbled himself to become like us and God raised him on high.

His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are,

and being as all men are, he was humbler yet,

even to accepting death, death on a cross.

But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names

so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father. The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Philippians 2:8-9

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross.

Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel

The passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke Year C

Full version Luke 22:14-23:56
Short version Luke 23:1-49 belowN The whole assembly then rose, and they brought him before Pilate. They began their accusation by saying,C *We found this man inciting our people to revolt, opposing payment of tribute to Caesar, and claiming to be Christ, a king.N Pilate put to him this question,O Are you the king of the Jews?N He replied,J It is you who say it.N Pilate then said to the chief priests and the crowd,O I find no case against this man.N But they persisted,C *He is inflaming the people with his teaching all over Judaea; it has come all the way from Galilee, where he started, down to here.N When Pilate heard this, he asked if the man were a Galilean; and finding that he came under Herod's jurisdiction he passed him over to Herod who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

Herod was delighted to see Jesus; he had heard about him and had been wanting for a long time to set eyes on him; moreover, he was hoping to see some miracle worked by him. So he questioned him at some length; but without getting any reply.

Meanwhile the chief priests and the scribes were there, violently pressing their accusations. Then Herod, together with his guards, treated him with contempt and made fun of him; he put a rich cloak on him and sent him back to Pilate. And though Herod and Pilate had been enemies before, they were reconciled that same day.

Pilate then summoned the chief priests and the leading men and the people. He said,

O You brought this man before me as a political agitator. Now I have gone into the matter myself in your presence and found no case against him. Nor has Herod either, since he has sent him back to us. As you can see, the man has done nothing

Jesus you are the Good Shepherd who is always mindful of your Church. Watch over those who are baptised in your name and grant peace and harmony to all families. We ask you to choose from the families of our parishes many priests, deacons, sisters and brothers who will gladly spend their lives making you known and loved.

AmenINTRODUCTION*THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS

We see ourselves in the crowds who cried 'Hosanna to the Son of David' one day and 'Crucify him' just a few days later. Like Peter and the other disciples we can be fickle followers of Jesus. We should not, however, imitate Judas and despair at our infidelity. Rather, we should look to Jesus who allowed his blood to be poured out for many 'for the forgiveness of sins'. Let us praise him with grateful hearts.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The Lord anointed my eyes: I went, I washed, I saw and I believed in God.

SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PRAYERSaint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. AmenSt Joseph pray for us.Parish Council 2022

CLERGY / LAITY GOLF DAY

Blackwood Parish Golf team were not successful in defending the title they won last year and finished overall third. But the team did not come away empty handed, as Felix Tan won the trophy for the best individual score on the day, and also for the "Nearest the Pin". Well done and thank you to those who participated.

The Archdiocesan Events Office is currently seeking volunteers to help at the Marian Procession in a range of roles. If you are available and willing to help, please email events@adelaide.catholic.org.au or P: 8210 8220.

The event is being held on Sunday May 22 at the Adelaide Showgrounds beginning at 2pm.

that deserves death, so I shall have him flogged and then let him go.
 N But as one man they howled,
C Away with him! Give us Barabbas!
 N This man had been thrown into prison for causing a riot in the city and for murder.
 Pilate was anxious to set Jesus free and addressed them again, but they shouted back.
C Crucify him! Crucify him!
 N And for the third time he spoke to them,
 O Why? What harm has this man done? I have found no case against him that deserves death, so I shall have him punished and let him go.
 N But they kept on shouting at the top of their voices, demanding that he should be crucified, and their shouts were growing louder.
 Pilate then gave his verdict: their demand was to be granted. He released the man they asked for, who had been imprisoned for rioting and murder, and handed Jesus over to them to deal with as they pleased.
 As they were leading him away they seized on a man, Simon from Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and made him shoulder the cross and carry it behind Jesus. Large numbers of people followed him, and of women too who mourned and lamented for him. But Jesus turned to them and said,
 J Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep rather for yourselves and for your children. For the days will surely come when people will say, 'Happy are those who are barren, the wombs that have never borne, the breasts that have never suckled!' Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!'; to the hills, 'Cover us!' For if men use the green wood like this, what will happen when it is dry?
 N Now with him they were also leading out two other criminals to be executed.
 When they reached the place called The Skull, they crucified him there and the criminals also, one on the right, the other on the left. Jesus said,
 J Father, forgive them; they do not know what they are doing.

 N Then they cast lots to share out his clothing. The people stayed there watching him. As for the leaders, they jeered at him, saying,
C He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.
 N The soldiers mocked him too, and when they approached to offer him vinegar they said,
C If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.
 N Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews.' One of the criminals hanging there abused him, saying,
 O Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us as well.
 N But the other spoke up and rebuked him,
 O Have you no fear of God at all? You got the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it: we are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong. Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.
 N He replied
 J Indeed, I promise you, today you will be with me in paradise.
 N It was now about the sixth hour and, with the sun eclipsed, a darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. The veil of the Temple was torn right down the middle; and when Jesus had cried out in a loud voice, he said,
 J Father, into your hands I commit my spirit.
 N With these words he breathed his last.

All kneel and pause a moment.

 N When the centurion saw what had taken place, he gave praise to God and said,
 O This was a great and good man.
 N And when all the people who had gathered for the spectacle saw what had happened, they went home beating their breasts.
 All his friends stood at a distance; so also did the women who had accompanied him from Galilee, and they saw all this happen.
